I can attend (and possibly will have Grant, my new Director provide public comment).

Here is the updated agenda. We are item 10.

Alan and I have a client meeting at 10:00 am Friday too. You should try to get 6 to 8 folks there.

Thanks for the update all Joanne and Kristin.

I have an internal LTSC meeting. I can see if I can move it or if someone else can attend. Kristin-- might be good to ask more folks to see who is available.

Friday's Council meeting is at 10am.

Nate (CD 14) is recommending LT folks try to come out just in case.

Ah, thank you for this update!!! Do we know the time of the meeting on Friday? Is it 10am again? And do we know which council offices they were calling? I just checked in with CD 14 - it seems like they weren't called.

Granted, I think with Huizar finally coming out strongly and publicly with his support behind demolition / for LT / for the Civic Center Master Plan, it's less of a concern, but being vigilant and prepared just in case is definitely always good.

I truly don't understand why they want to fight this all the way to the very finish.

Hi Joanne,

I JUST barely got this agenda via email. Do you know if it was already voted on? The City Council meeting started at 10a...

Hi All,

Just received a message that the LA Conservancy are making phone calls to City Council offices. I think they will be at City Council for the vote! We need to be prepared,
